Suggested Reading: Nonfiction

Here are a few suggestions of nonfiction titles that your children may enjoy. Encourage them to look for books on topics that interest them. If the books they choose are too hard for them to read alone, enjoy reading them together!

Authors

Joanna Cole (The Magic School Bus Series)
Jerry Pollatta (a-b-c books)
Gail Gibbons (various topics)
Anne F. Rockwell (various topics)
David Adler (picture book biographies)
Seymour Simon (various titles)
Mary Pope Osbourne (Magic Tree House Research Guides)

Series

DK Eyewitness Books
History Maker Bios (Barnes & Noble)
Nature’s Children
You Wouldn’t Want to Live Without…
Let's-Read-and-Find-Out Science
Sleeping Bear Press alphabet books
Scholastic First Discovery Books
Magic Tree house Research Guides

Titles

The Airport Book (Lisa Brown)
Amazing Places (Lee Bennett Hopkins)
Book Itch (Joo Hee Yoon)
*Building the Titanic the Making of a Doomed Ship (Sean McCollum)
*Cyberbullying (Heather E. Schwartz)
*Life Story of a Butterfly (Charlotte Guillian)
*The Incredible Work of Engineers With Max Axiom, Super Scientist (Agnieszka Biskup)
*The Life Story of a Butterfly (Charlotte Guillian)
Mesmerized: How Ben Franklin Solved a Mystery that Baffled All of France (Mara Rockliff)
*Understanding Computer Safety (Paul Mason)
*You Wouldn’t Want to Live Without… Cell Phones (Jim Pipe)
*You Wouldn’t Want to Live Without Computer Safety (Paul Mason)
Voice of Freedom: Fannie Lou Hamer (Carole Boston Weatherford)

*E-book available on Pennypack’s FollettShelf