Get Organized!

It's finally time to get things figured out, really get a grip on what components will be featured in your exhibit. Remember to keep in mind the pertinent information that needs to be covered so that your visitors really understand the message you are trying to have come across.

It's all about covering the defining impact AND role your sport has had and continues to have on America.

LIST Exhibits: video, top 10 items, visual(s)/audio(s) from decades, interactive component, timeline

1. ____________________________

2. ____________________________

3. ____________________________

Exhibit ONE: ____________________________

What information do you plan to cover? ____________________________

Who in your group will take the lead on organizing this exhibit? ____________________________

What information do you need to gather to make this exhibit clear, interesting, and inviting?

______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

What do you want your audience to get from this exhibit?

______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

What is your next step to work on this exhibit? ____________________________
Exhibit TWO: ________________________________

What information do you plan to cover? _____________________________________________

Who in your group will take the lead on organizing this exhibit? __________________________

What information do you need to gather to make this exhibit clear, interesting, and inviting?
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

What do you want your audience to get from this exhibit?
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

What is your next step to work on this exhibit? _______________________________________

Exhibit THREE: ________________________________

What information do you plan to cover? _____________________________________________

Who in your group will take the lead on organizing this exhibit? __________________________

What information do you need to gather to make this exhibit clear, interesting, and inviting?
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

What do you want your audience to get from this exhibit?
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________
______________________________________________________________________________

What is your next step to work on this exhibit? _______________________________________