Preparing for Presentation Day: Exhibit One Worksheet

What is Exhibit One? Video, Top 10, Visual or Audio from Decades, Interactive Component, Timeline.

The information we plan to cover is ________________________________.

What do you want your audience to get/learn from this exhibit?

_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________

On a scale of 1 to 10, Exhibit One is complete. ______

To rank this Exhibit a ten, we need to complete the following:

_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________

On presentation day, we need to bring the following materials for Exhibit One:

Preparing for Presentation Day: Exhibit Two Worksheet

What is Exhibit Two? Video, Top 10, Visual or Audio from Decades, Interactive Component, Timeline.

The information we plan to cover is ________________________________.

What do you want your audience to get/learn from this exhibit?

_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________

On a scale of 1 to 10, Exhibit Two is complete. ______

To rank this Exhibit a ten, we need to complete the following:

_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________________

On presentation day, we need to bring the following materials for Exhibit Two:
Preparing for Presentation Day: Exhibit Three Worksheet

What is Exhibit Three? Video, Top 10, Visual or Audio from Decades, Interactive Component, Timeline.

The information we plan to cover is __________________________________________.

What do you want your audience to get/learn from this exhibit?
__________________________________________________
__________________________________________________
__________________________________________________
__________________________________________________

On a scale of 1 to 10, Exhibit Three is complete. ______
To rank this Exhibit a ten, we need to complete the following:
__________________________________________________
__________________________________________________
__________________________________________________
__________________________________________________

On presentation day, we need to bring the following materials for Exhibit Three:

__________________________________________________
__________________________________________________
__________________________________________________
__________________________________________________